Above dates were determined based on the University's refund policy printed below.

Students who withdraw from the University will receive a pro-rated refund of tuition according to the following schedule:

| | |
|---|------|
| Up until the start of the session | 100% |
| Through 2nd day after the start of the session | 90% |
| Through 10th day after the start of the session | 50% |
| Through 14th day after the start of the session | 30% |

If a student is receiving financial aid, University and state funds will be reduced according to the above schedule. However, the schedule is different for federal funds. If a student withdraws on or before the 60% point in time of the semester, a portion of the Title IV federal funds (Pell grant, Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant, Perkins Loan, Stafford Direct Loan, PLUS Loan but not Federal Work-Study) must be returned to the government. The calculation of the return of these funds, which is based on the number of days remaining in the semester, may result in the student owing a balance to the University and/or the federal government.

Students considering withdrawing from all classes should consult with the staff in the Student Accounts and/or Financial Aid Offices if they are concerned about the financial impact of withdrawing.
